DEAR JE SPIDERS — CLASS OF 2021!

If you were to ask the Admissions Office why Jonathan Edwards College is best of all the other thirteen residential colleges of Yale University, they would likely recite: “No college is better than any other college. Colleges are randomly assorted communities. No one college is better, per se, they’re just different.” But, we in JE know the truth and soon, you too will know the incontrovertible proof that JE is the best college!

Of course, the other colleges will attempt to make this same claim by mentioning something about their lipstick statues or their garden gnomes. However, when Yalies speak of JE events—like our Spider Ball or Culture Draw, expect to detect a quiver in their voice and a wistful look in their eyes. Moreover, should the topic of IM’s arise, be prepared for unbridled displays of envy, due to the fact that the Tyng Cup (the chalice of the college intramural championships) resided in JE for three consecutive years, from 2010 to 2012!

But, rather than sell you on JE’s advantages now, we’d much rather you discover, celebrate, and sustain our great legacy. It’s a well-known fact that colleges and their accolades live and die on the strength and pride of their first-year class. Is this too much to expect?! Perhaps elsewhere but we have faith that you are up for this task—look at what you’ve accomplished thus far!

With that, we are excited about your arrival and will be there waiting for you with open arms—ready to take your hugs, your questions...and your bags!

We look forward to dining with you in the Great Hall, chatting with you in the Admin Offices and cheering you on during IM Sports! You are now members of the JE community—welcome home Spiders!

Sux et Veritas,
The Jonathan Edwards Community
Residential Colleges

In 1931, University administration borrowed a housing idea from Oxford and Cambridge (the only good idea to come from a college in any city named Cambridge). The result was a development plan that forever changed the face of Yale College: the Residential College System.

The year 1932 saw the construction of the first of the original seven “residential quadrangles” under the direction of architect James Gamble Rogers. Jonathan Edwards College, named for the child prodigy and brilliant Yale alumnus (1720) and arguably the greatest theologian of The Great Awakening came into its glorious being.

Spiders

We are JE Spiders and proud of it! If you’re up on your 18th century literature, you might guess that our mascot derives from our namesake’s most famous sermon, “Sinners in the Hands of an Angry God.” Not one to shy from fiery rhetoric, Edwards wrote: “The God that holds you over the pit of hell, much as one holds a spider, or some loathsome insect over the fire, abhors you, and is dreadfully provoked...” Inspiring huh? So there you have it. Spiders.

Why JE SUX!

Don’t be fooled by the seemingly self-deprecating sound of our battle cry, “JE SUX!” It kind of worried us when we first heard it but we quickly learned that it’s the best slogan of any college. It has a long and colorful history dating back to the 1970s. It all began when a group of JE students devised a plan to win at a former Yale tradition: Bladderball. Each year, students celebrated the end of the fall mid-term by trying to push a large water-filled ball from its origin on Old Campus to the gates of their college proper. One year, some enterprising Spiders built a crane-like machine atop an Old Campus building that was designed to snatch up the ball and hoist it over to a crowd of JE students awaiting victory. Unfortunately, the hook on the contraption burst the ball, and their plan was instantly thwarted. Angry participants began shouting, “JE sucks!” a chant that became popular at Yale football games. Subsequently, we held the record for the longest undefeated streak in the history of Yale intramural sports and then kept on winning, forging a new record of 55 games that still gloriously stands. They won four straight championships—and it was all to the chant of “JE Sux!” The moniker “Sux” spread to other JE teams and then became a rallying cry for the College as a whole.

Jonathan Edwards

Class of 1720, Jonathan Edwards was among the foremost theologians and philosophers of his time. He was a fiery preacher who is our beloved namesake.
WHY YOU’RE LUCKY

Any honest Yale would agree that JE is hands-down the most spirited college on campus (after the obligatory nod to their own college).

It’s probably because we’re one of the smallest and most intimate of the other colleges, with the most and best traditions of any other college.

Here’s a short list to get you prepared:

JE GEAR
JE famously has wonderful gear: Hats, bathrobes, nalgenes, gloves, ties, scarves, T-shirts, sweatshirts, gloves, headbands, rugby shirts, bathrobes, flip flops, socks (JE sox), croakies, towels, joggers—you name it. We’ve got it all, and it’s all JE.

CULTURE DRAW
As the classiest college, our Head of College sponsors a draw each semester to give away tickets to New York opera, ballet and Broadway shows. Complete with a meal with a JE Fellow at one of New York’s finest restaurants, don’t miss the chance to win a trip.

STUDY BREAKS AND FOOD NIGHTS
Late night snacks sponsored by JE. Your FroCos will buy pizza for you weekly. SAC (Student Activities Committee) will host monthly food nights with various themes. During Reading Period, the Head of College, Dean and Graduate Affiliates will each host a themed study break. Protein Break anyone?

INTENSE DISLIKE OF BRANFORD COLLEGE
We do this a lot. They are our rivals—arch-nemeses if you will. Think Hatfields and McCoys.

WINTER LIGHTS
Spider First-Years beat all other First-Years to the punch by being the first to hang lights outside Farnam and get Old Campus in the festive mood.

WET MONDAY
First-Years invade JE proper with anything water at midnight on the Monday after Easter. Everyone gets wet and so everyone wins!

SPIDER BALL
It’s the swankiest party on campus all year. Exclusive to Spiders and their guests only.
FARNAM HALL
YOUR NEW HOME
Many of the questions you (and probably your parents) are asking right now probably concern what (Henry) Farnam Hall is like. After all, it is extremely important to make your dorm room your own little New Haven safe haven: You’ll want to create a comfortable, relaxing atmosphere that is conducive to both studying and social interaction.

OVERVIEW

As you may know, only four residential colleges house their first-years alongside their upper-level students: Timothy Dwight, Benjamin Franklin, Pauli Murray and Silliman. The rest of Yale’s First-Years make their homes on Old Campus, where Farnam Hall is located.

JE only wants the best for its First-Years, and that’s why we house our new Spiders in Farnam Hall. About two-thirds of Farnamites find themselves in singles and the rest are in doubles of palatial proportions.

You’ll quickly discover Farnam’s charm; it is an awesome building and the setup is ideal. Its system of interconnected suites lends itself to lots of interaction with your JE classmates. And although small disturbances are sure to arise over the state of the in-suite bathroom or who’s to take out the trash, your suitemates often become some of your closest friends.

NOTA BENE

Use the information that follows as a guide only for what to expect. We have done our best to provide you with the information we can so that you can better plan for your suites.
THE SUITES

Farnam Hall has three Entryways—A, B and C—that are all accessible via the Old Campus side of the building using your Yale ID. Entryway A is adjacent to Battell Chapel, and C neighbors Lawrance Hall (for Stiles First-Years), leaving B in between. Like most residential buildings at Yale, there are no traditional “hallways” in Farnam. Instead, the entryways open to reveal stairwells; your neighbors are the people above, below, and on the same landing as you, as there are generally two suites per landing: one on the right, and one on the left.

To determine where you’ll be located in Farnam, look at your suite number:

FA-22A
- The F stands for Farnam.
- The A that follows is your entryway.
- The first number designates your floor. (Zero is the basement.)
- The second number designates the right or left suite on the landing. (Facing Old Campus, suites with a one here are on the right; twos are on the left.)
- The third letter tells you which room in the suite is yours

There are four kinds of suites in Farnam:

THE SEXTETS (9)
- Entryways B and C
- Floors 2, 3, and 4
- 4 Singles, 1 Double
- 1 Bathroom, 1 Common Room

THE DECTETS (3)
- Entryway A
- Floors 2, 3, and 4
- 6 Singles, 2 Doubles
- 2 Bathrooms, 1 Common Room

THE DOUBLES (3)
- Entryway A, Floor 1 and Two Basement Suites
- 1 Double
- 1 Bathroom, 1 Common Room
- FA 11 use the Common Rm in FA12

THE QUINTETS (3)
- Basement Hallway Suites
- Entryway C Floor 1
- 3 Singles, 1 Double
- 1 Bathroom, 1 Common Room
To give an example of bathroom facilities, those in sextets and quintets contain one shower, one toilet and two sinks. The extra bathroom in a decet is the same except with one fewer sink. Since all suites have in-suite bathrooms, you are responsible for keeping them neat (the University cleans them only once during Winter Break) and for procuring your own toilet paper. Yale provides this necessity and any cleaning supplies you may want to use. Ask your First-Year Counselors when and where you get it. It’s best to take as many friends with you as possible. Limit six rolls a person per trip (but it’s usually not enforced).

There are fire doors between suites on the same floor that—along with the stairwells—allow Farnamites to pass through almost all suites without hindrance. Living in Farnam is like living in a suite with every First-Year in JE. Most suites leave suite doors unlocked to let Farnam traffic flow. Don’t worry, bedrooms are all individually keyed.

Common Rooms are furnished and the space is ~ 11’ x 12’. You might want to spruce it up a bit with colorful posters, a refrigerator, curtains and a rug. NB: Decorate without holes in the wall. Holes equal fines at the end of the year.

The decetts are actually regular sextets with quads attached (hence the slash in FA-21/22, for example). The partitioned space functions as one suite—there is only one regularly-sized common room—but it contains two bathrooms. The diagram of a typical decet suite is shown below. The FA22 portion is typical of all sextets.
THE BEDROOMS

FARNAM DOUBLES
Doubles typically are about twice the size of the singles—about 11’ x 13’ (not including wardrobes). All furnishings are doubled: 2 beds, 2 desks, 2 wardrobes, 2 chairs, 2 storage units.

BED
Bed dimensions are roughly 7’ x 3’. Beds in singles differ from beds in doubles. Single-room beds are low to the ground and contain two shallow storage drawers beneath. Beds in doubles are of the bunkable variety. However, doubles in the sextets and dectets are large enough so that there’s no need to bunk your beds. In these rooms, it is possible to adjust the height of the mattresses up to approximately 30 inches. At full height, a bureau dresser will fit beneath such a bed.

STORAGE UNIT
Small, two-drawer storage units (2’ x 1.5’) come as components of the desks. (The desks in Farnam each have only one shallow tray-type drawer.) They are very useful, but it can be difficult to find a place for them. Both the unit and the chair cannot fit under the desk at the same time. Try using it as a nightstand.

DESKS
Desks in Farnam are small—about 3’ wide, 2’ deep. If you purchased a desktop computer with a traditional monitor, that is probably the only thing you will be able to place on your desk. We recommend a laptop for space purposes. And if you’re bringing a printer: the smaller, the better.

DESK CHAIRS
Desk chairs provided are large, sturdy, wooden chairs that rock back. You may want to bring a pillow for it to cushion your tush.

SHELVES
Most rooms have two adjustable metal or wooden shelves that fit into metal brackets that run along the walls. For some of you (keep reading) these may be your only shelf storage.

WALL
At least one wall in most bedrooms is made from a fibrous, bulletin board-like material. Feel free to adorn your walls with posters, pictures and more. Use pushpins or adhesive putties to decorate; tape will take off paint that may get you fined.

MORE SHELVES
Many bedrooms (all those not on the fourth floor and those not in the doubles in FA-21, -31, and -41) contain shelving that runs a couple feet below the ceiling.

CLOSETS AND DRESSERS
The closets are mostly to save space, and you will find most of the dressers already placed inside them. Above the hanger rod is a deep storage shelf. High ceilings allow large items to be placed above the wardrobes.
OTHER HOUSING INFORMATION

COMMON ROOMS
Common Rooms are furnished. All above-ground common rooms look out on Old Campus. Fourth floor common rooms have window seats. There are no curtains in the Common Rooms.

BEDROOMS
The University provides each student with a desk, a chair, a bureau and a closet or wardrobe. There are curtains in the bedrooms but not in the Common Rooms.

LIGHTING
You’ll want one floor lamp for a single bedroom, two for a double, and at least two for the common room. You’ll need a reading lamp for your desk as well. Halogen lamps are dangerous, and illegal.

AIR
A small fan is also nice to circulate the air in your room. There is no air-conditioning in Farnam and it can be hot and sticky in New Haven for a few (long) weeks before the weather cools. Also, the heat rolls out along the walls all winter and can make things really dry, so some students bring humidifiers. In the colder months, heating is inconsistent. Some of you will be sweating; others may want a space heater.

ELECTRICITY
Bring surge protectors/extension cords for your room and common room, but avoid overloading circuits, or you’ll be whammied by the Fire Marshal. When you move in, look for plugs hidden by furniture. Also check which plugs are controlled by switches and which are not. You’d hate to accidentally turn off the fridge when you turn off the lights.

CEILINGS
Ceilings in Farnam are vertically generous; ceilings are over 11’ high.

SPECIAL CLOSETS (A ENTRYWAY)
The doubles in sub-suites FA-21, -31, and -41 do not have wardrobe closets. Instead, they have small traditional closets (see diagram, pg. 14) that must be shared by both students—about 30” wide, 36” deep. However, the rooms themselves are slightly larger than the other doubles in Farnam (12’ x 13’).

EXTRA FURNITURE
Be advised that there is little room for extra furniture in bedrooms. A set of stacking crates or a small refrigerator is the only thing that will fit.
REFRIGERATORS, ETC...
Farnam suites do not contain kitchenettes of any kind and so a small, dorm-sized refrigerator is a must-have for each suite. They can be rented on campus, bought nearby, or brought from home. We also recommend bringing food supplies and preparation items for late-night snacks. And remember, there is a kitchen for student use in the basement of JE if you feel like really putting your culinary expertise to work.

PHONE
Best to rely on your cell phone.

WIRELESS INTERNET
Farnam is outfitted with wireless routers. Both secure and guest networks are available, and student techs will be on hand during move-in week to help set you up. Occasionally there are wireless outages, so think about packing a trusty Ethernet cable (ports available in every room).

LAUNDRY
One of the two Old Campus laundry facilities (and the nicer of the two) is located in the basement of Farnam Entryway B. Washer cycles are $1.25, and dryer cycles cost the same. Your Yale ID card will allow you to pay.

ENTRYWAY A SINGLES
The singles in suites FA-21, -31, and -41 are longer (15’) and narrower (6’) than the other rooms in Farnam yielding a bit more precious floor space. Yay!

BASEMENT DOUBLES
FA01 and FC01 have a common room, double and bathroom. The bedroom is roughly 9’ x 12’, the common room is also 9’ x 12’ and has a curved wall with a raised bench.

FOURTH FLOOR
The fourth-floor bedrooms have slanted ceilings. This means that 1) They do not have the overhead shelving, and 2) they have slightly reduced volume. However, the fourth floor suites have pretty window seats in their common rooms and doubles.

PROPERTY
Some students opt for low-cost property insurance (we hear there’s one offered by Haylor, Fereyer, & Coon). This covers theft, which can happen anywhere, but is unlikely to occur in your bedroom which has its own lock.

SECURITY
Three levels: Entryways are ID card-access only; only Farnamites can enter Farnam. Suites have common keys for all members, but most suites opt to leave their front door open to let First-Years pass through. Individual rooms have individual keys. In addition, at night, all gates of Old Campus are made ID card-access only.
The Yale language can be a bit confusing at first. Therefore, we have provided you with this (by no means exhaustive) glossary of terms to prep you for assimilating straight away. Study this well, and you may pass for a sophomore!

ANNEX HOUSING
Where upper-level students live on campus when there is no room for them to live in their colleges. Almost all annexed occupants are juniors (first-year, sophomore and senior housing is guaranteed).

BURSAR BILL
Yale College’s way to “buy now; pay later.” Swipe your ID at the bookstore, Durfee’s, and other locations to simply accumulate a balance payable on your next tuition bill.

BUTTERY
Affectionately called “The Butt” is located in JE’s basement, open Sunday through Thursday nights for movies and greasy, yet incredibly tasty cheap food.

COMPUTER CLUSTER
Located in the Lower Taft, near the study carrel. It has several PC’s, a couple of MACs, a photocopier and a fax machine. Very Handy!

CPA FUNDING
AKA Creative & Performing Arts Awards are opportunities to receive funding for independent artistic projects including plays, art shows and creative writing publications.

CURTIS CURTISS LIBRARY
Located in JE Entryway K; a very cozy place to study

DANCE STUDY
Bust a move, strike a pose, practice Yoga, meditate

DEAD WEEK
The week after exams and before commencement, usually applicable only to seniors and those involved in certain extracurricular activities.

FIRST-YEAR COUNSELORS (FRCOS)
Seniors chosen by the residential college Deans to live with and counsel their colleges’ first-year classes. They are super people. Love them.
FIRST-YEAR OLYMPICS
First-Years from each residential college compete for pride, honor, and glory. Luckily, JE already has all that so winning the First-Year Olympics is just a bonus. After years of last-place finishes, 2012 and 2013 have restored JE to glory. 2012 took 5th place; 2013 took 3rd. 2014 saw a drop down to sixth. In 2015, 2016 and 2017…well…let’s just say, we’re counting on YOU this Spring!

THE GAME
The Harvard-Yale football game: a must-see.

GAME ROOM
Two pool tables, wall-mounted TV’s, comfortable sofas, ping-pong and foosball tables…perfect cave!

GREAT HALL
Commonly known as the JE Dining Hall hosts social events and dances. Be sure to check it out during Halloween (think Hogwarts).

THE GREEN (NEW HAVEN)
New Haven public area; large and green. Your bedroom window in Farnam may look out onto it.

GYM
Located in JE basement; exercise equipment, TV, water and red floor

HEAD OF COLLEGE TEA’S
Event for which a well-known or influential politician, movie star, artist, scholar, or other is invited to speak to small gatherings of Yale community members. Go often!

HOUSE OF PAYNE
Payne-Whitney Gymnasium, Yale’s shrine to athletics; it is the second-largest indoor athletic facility in the world.

JE PRESS ROOM
JE has bragging rights here…our printing press is the oldest, most elaborate in all Yale College. JE prints its own diplomas for Commencement.

LAUNDRY ROOM
Located in JE basement; the place where your color clothes get bleached and your whites get stained

LOWER TAFT
One of several library spaces in JE. Comfy couches, spacious study carrels, and a cramped spiral staircase—everything you’d expect in a residential college.
Math/Science Tutor
Scholars hired by each residential college to aid in the study of natural sciences. JE’s Math/Science tutor is invaluable for all your math problem sets and questions. If you think his areas of expertise might not be exactly what you’re looking for, feel free to explore other college’s math/science tutors.

MEN OF JE
JE’s comedic response to the proliferation of Yale’s a cappella groups. The Men (now co-ed) recruit unsuspecting First-Year every year with intense auditions and teach them the irreverent “Men Song”—all about life in JE.

MINIBUS
The safest way to get around at night. Good to use if you are far from campus, and great to use when you don’t feel like paying for a cab or Uber.

The Other School
Hahvahd. Love to hate it.

Phelps Gate
Yale’s gateway to New Haven located on the southeastern side of Old Campus. This is where to send taxis, have pizza delivered, and feel the wind’s frosty wrath in winter.

Reading Week
The week before exams, during which most classes do not meet in order to give students time to study and write final papers. Also known as Reading Period.

Room Draw
The game devised by each college, whereby upper-level students (and upper-level students-to-be) define the order in which they will choose suites for the coming year. JE’s version is a variation on High Card Draw; it comes toward the end of the year.

Rush
The period of time (within the first two months of school) when students audition for a cappella groups; it begins with a concert in Woolsey Hall and ends with Tap Night.

Screw
A formal dance that most people attend with a blind date set up by their roommates. Each college hosts its own Screw every fall.

Shopping Period
A week-and-a-half period at the beginning of each semester during which you may attend any classes that interest you before you submit your formal schedule. Everyone shops; it is highly encouraged! Just remember that anything covered during Shopping Period might show up on an exam.
SKYPE ROOM
Located in Entryway H; to be used for video and private interviews for internships or fellowships

STUDENT KITCHEN
Located in the basement; reservations made through JE website

TAP NIGHT
The night when students are selected to join certain extracurricular groups and clubs. A cappella groups and secret societies have the two most active Tap Nights.

THEATRE
Perfect for student productions or movie night (if available)

TOMB
Home of a secret society.

TRANSFER
To eat in a Dining Hall that is not your own.

UPPER TAFT
Technically the Beekman C. Cannon Reading Room. Ideal for studying—well-lit and a focused atmosphere.

WEIR HALL
The southwestern quadrant of JE; home to the Great Hall and JE’s libraries. Legend has it Weir Hall was bought by Yale from the Skull and Bones Society to build JE.

WRITING TUTOR
Scholar hired by each of the residential colleges to aid students in writing papers in all subject areas. JE’s writing tutor is the fabulous Kate Hunter. She is the nicest person you have ever met in your life, and making an appointment with her is highly encouraged.
Acronyms abound at Yale, and they can be overwhelming if you’re not prepared. Use this guide as a primer, and—before you know it—you’ll be leaving an FCC meeting in SML to play an IM on OC for JE, but keep it on the DL, OK?

BASS
Bass Library. The underground “study” library that has its own organic café, which is great if you like working in a coffee shop atmosphere.

DUH
Yale University Health Services. A place to go when you’re feeling ill. The named changed (from Department of University Health), but the old acronym stuck.

DS
Directed Studies. A comprehensive First-Year humanities program. DSers are best left alone (unless you’re bringing them coffee) Thursday nights. The rest of the week, they are perfectly normal and often quite friendly.

FCC
First-Year Class Council. An elected body that organizes and executes fun First-Year frivolities like the First-Year Screw [is this happening] and the First-Year Olympics. You vote for two representatives from your class at the beginning of the year.

IM’S
Intramurals. Sports played competitively between residential colleges for the coveted Tyng Cup. There are three IM seasons with different sports each season. Not to live in the past…but did we mention we were 2010 & 2011 & 2012 Tyng champions? Keep hope alive for 2018!

ITS
Information Technology Services. Responsible for your Ethernet, long-distance telephone and other telecommunications.

JE
Jonathan Edwards College. We hope you got that one...

JECC
Jonathan Edwards College Council. JE’s student government. JECC is your source for JE gear and your voice in how JE is run. JOIN and PARTICIPATE.
KBT
Kline Biology Tower. The highest building at Yale with the highest dining facility at Yale. Students with classes on top of Science Hill can grab lunch here.

LC
Linsley-Chittenden Hall. The center for English studies at Yale, located on Old Campus.

OC
Old Campus. The heart of Yale, where you’ll be living.

LOM
Leet Oliver Memorial Building. The main Math Building.

SAC
Social Activities Committee. Each college has one; pronounced sack. JE SAC plans food nights, dances, ski trips, and other events to pass the time outside classes.

SML
Sterling Memorial Library. The main branch of the Yale Library.

SSS
Sterling, Sheffield, and Strathcona Hall. Home to a main lecture hall and the Yale College Dean’s Office.

WLH
William L. Harkness Hall. A Cross Campus building that houses multiple disciplines’ classes, including music and history.

YCC
Yale College Council. The highest level of Yale undergraduate student government.

YPMB
Yale Precision Marching Band. They aren’t exactly precise, nor do they necessarily march, but they sure are funny to watch at half-time.

YSO
Yale Symphony Orchestra. Flutes, violins, timpani…

Some Yale building are known by indecipherable acronyms. This site will help: http://www.yale.edu/sis/building.codes.html
THINGS TO CONSIDER

BANKING
You will most likely want to set up some kind of banking account in New Haven during your first couple of days here. The University banks with Bank of America; therefore, all ATMs on campus are affiliated with that bank. A “B of A” ATM is located in Durfee’s (on Old Campus) very near Farnam and in Bass Library. Many banks are within walking distance of Old Campus. For more information on banking and branches, refer to The Yale Guide.

BIKES
Science Hill is the farthest point on campus from Farnam, approximately a 15-minute walk. You may take a Yale bus from near Old Campus or Commons (the main dining hall) or you may prefer the freedom of a bike. If you do have a bike on campus, be sure to purchase a U-lock to stave off bike thieves! You will need to register your bike in JE’s Receiving Office, once you get to campus in order to store it in the college’s courtyard.

LAPTOPS
If you have a laptop computer, you might want to purchase some kind of portable computer lock. A few seconds of diverted attention can cost you several hundred dollars and a semester’s load of work. It is also wise to register your computer with the Yale Police—you’ll receive more information on this at the Safety Talk your first week at school. And need we say: back up your work, back up your work, back up your work!

WINTER
New Haven winters can be beautiful, but they are long, cold and wet. Come prepared with suitable clothes. Listen up, Southerners and West Coasters… get a big coat, hat, scarf and gloves!

CLOTHES
While you’re at it, pack some clothes for out-of-the-ordinary occasions, such as The Screw Dance, Halloween, Spider Ball and other parties. Yalies are big on all three. Think formal, semi-formal and costumes.
PACK LIGHT
Essential if you’re not within driving distance! It’s cheap to ship clothes and books from home by US Post and you can bring things back at Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Spring Break. At the end of term, JE offers summer storage—you’re able to purchase up to (5) boxes that will be stored on West Campus.

NEW HAVEN FOOD
The Yale Campus is very nuclear; there really isn’t a great need to leave. Dining Hall food is plentiful; junk food is available at Durfee’s (on Old Campus); Off-campus, there’s cuisine of almost every type imaginable, including a plethora of world famous (not kidding) pizza and Thai options. There’s a Stop & Shop on Whalley Avenue for your groceries.

MOVE-IN
If you’re driving to New Haven, be sure to get to campus early on move-in day. You will see signs on College Street designating where each college should park and look for JE Spiders with JE Moves t-shirts to help you unload. You can park on the street/sidewalk for a short period of time while you unload.
FIRST-YEAR COUNSELORS

(FROCOS)

FRONT AND CENTER
Head FroCo, Sarah Naco

MIDDLE ROW, LEFT TO RIGHT
Rachel Strodel and Sunday Swett

BACK ROW, LEFT TO RIGHT
Jacob Rodriguez, Olubusayo Alofe,
Luis Fernando Machado Poletti Valle
and Stephanie Reynolds Ramos
Head FroCo, Sarah is a born and bred Aussie, hailing from the capital, Canberra (not Sydney!). Despite her lacking an Australian accent, which these days sounds increasingly American, she is a proud lover of vegemite, tim tams and beaches. Majoring in history of science, medicine and public health, Sarah is interested in public and global health. Although, her internship in London this summer where she’s helping make a documentary for National Geographic is making her realise a career in documentary filmmaking would be really cool, plus she could indulge her passion for travel. Beyond her love of watching documentaries, Sarah is an avid lover of food...all food. A self-declared expert on New Haven’s restaurant scene, she is more than happy to suggest places to eat/accompany anyone feeling like an adventure off campus. Sarah is also a member of Yale Steppin’ Out, which is difficult to explain (Dancing without music because we make the music by hitting ourselves? Sounds interesting….), so you’ll just have to join or come to one of our shows! And finally and most importantly, Sarah is an avid lover of JE. Having worked in the buttery and as a college aide (seriously the best job on campus), Sarah cannot wait to meet and live with JE’s newest family members.

SARAH’S $0.02

First year at Yale is an exciting time with so many opportunities presented to you, it is both overwhelming and exhilarating. What I wish someone had told me as a first year is that there is no ‘right’ way to do Yale. There’s no magic formula for the classes you should take, and the extra curriculums you must do in order to be successful and/or happy. The truth is that your four years at Yale are an incredibly personal journey where you are going to learn things about yourself you didn’t even know there were to discover. Do what you want to do. Take the classes that you want to take. Similarly, if you want to walk onto the crew team, you go and try-out. If you can’t wait to get involved with acapella, go and rush. If your ideal Friday night is hanging out with friends playing board games, you can do that! This is your time, do what excites you. And if you don’t know what that is yet, go out and explore; Yale is such a diverse, fun, creative, varied community, there really is something for everyone.
Grace is a Molecular, Cellular, and Developmental Biology major with academic interests (formerly read: double major) in Ethnicity, Race, and Migration and African American Studies, which inspired her studies abroad. At Yale, she’s a member of WORD performance poetry, is President of the Black Solidarity Conference at Yale, and works as head tour guide. She will argue forever that potatoes, and thus French fries, count as vegetables. She spends most of her free time doing cultural research in the form of binge-watching Shonda Rhimes’s latest and greatest TV shows. If you’re ever looking for her, you can probably find her in a lab or the Af-Am House.

GRACE’S $0.02

Be ready to forgive yourself at the start of your first year (and the rest of your college career/life). It can be easy to get frustrated if (when) things don’t go your way, but try to be patient with yourself and those around you as you figure out what your Yale will look like. Don’t be afraid to leave whatever path you or your loved ones have carved out for you, and jump into something new and scary! This is the perfect time to do this, because you have a network of support that extends further than you’ll ever know. Also, try to spend time with communities that you don’t traditionally identify with! This could be in the form of a club, cultural house, or anything in between. I’ve definitely learned the most in spaces that were unfamiliar to me, and have constantly been surprised by how willing people are to share their experiences.
Stephanie is a Political Science major, who has dabbled in psychology, marketing and taking way more language credits than she needed. Hailing from San Juan, Puerto Rico, she was not prepared for winter in New Haven, but has ~somewhat~ grown accustomed to it. Outside of class, she is part of Camp Kesem (a student-led summer camp for children whose parents have been affected by cancer) and works at the School of Management. She is also a member of the JE College Council and the JE Social Activities Committee because JE is hands down the best college around. Additionally, she is passionate about Netflix original series and the Yale 50% discount at Papa Johns. She feels most at home in the JE dining hall, so if you ever need to find that is a good place to start.

- Eat long meals: spend a little too much time in the dining hall hanging out with friends and taking a break from your work. This is how I made some of my best friends at Yale. It’s important to remember that you’re human and you need a break sometimes, there’s nothing wrong with that. Watch a movie with your suitemates, go explore New Haven, get to know people across the firedoor in Farnam, have a picnic on Old Campus, play some ping pong in the buttery. Make time for this kind of thing—it’s so important.

- Ask for help—it will make your life a lot easier!

- Take fun classes—you don’t need to have anything figured out right now so just explore, you never know what it could lead to.

- Froco pizza is honestly one of the best parts of being in JE so take advantage of it!

- Don’t be a stranger—come hang in the Froco suite!
Jacob is a Colorado native and pursuing a double major in Economics and French. Jacob is an avid theatre maker and the former Production Officer of the Dramat, on the men’s club volleyball team, and the Director of Fundraising for Yale Model Congress. He has also spent a few summers abroad in France and tutors French. In his free time, he enjoys cooking, hiking and watching bad movies with friends. In his not-so-free time, he can be found working in Taft with black coffee in hand or emailing in some dark corner of a theatre on campus.

Find a few extracurriculars you are really passionate about (or ones you’ve never tried before but always wanted to) and get involved. It’s important to find extracurriculars that fulfill different roles in your day to day life. Some extracurriculars will give you skills that will help you later in life or projects that are time consuming but incredibly rewarding, while others will provide a break or a change of pace from classwork. Finding a balance can be difficult but so rewarding. Some of my best friends and most memorable experiences at Yale have been through theatre, volleyball, and model congress.
Rachel is a podcast enthusiast who hails from Lexington, Massachusetts. She is so excited to welcome the JE class of 2021 to campus! Although she originally thought she was going to major in English at Yale, Rachel ended up studying Molecular, Cellular, and Developmental Biology and is a member of the Global Health Studies program. At Yale, she continued to pursue her love for writing by serving in various editorial roles for the Yale Herald, most recently as editor-in-chief. In her spare time, Rachel enjoys running, biking, and volunteering at a free clinic for uninsured New Haven residents. Come talk to Rachel if you’re interested in journalism, health policy, or want to know where to find really good coffee in New Haven!

You don’t have to have your life path figured out right when you step foot on Old Campus for the first time. Give yourself room to grow and change! Push yourself to try something you would have never considered before. Also, don’t be afraid to make connections—whether that’s with your peers or with professors. For a lot of my first semester at Yale, I was terrified of asking for help from my teachers. It took me a while to see my professors as just people—and as people who genuinely wanted to support me and help me as I went through this phase of life.
Sunday is from the great state of New Hampshire and thereby takes very seriously the motto “live free or die”. She is an Astrophysics wannabe and an Environmental History major so you will often find her stressing about all the reading she hasn’t done and all the papers she has to do! Outside of class, she’s a member of the women’s varsity tennis team, counselor for Camp Kesem, and as president of the JE college council she does her best to keep JE the most admired and desired residential college since it’s founding. What you won’t find on her resume is her love for hiking, ice cream, and her three dogs Tess, Tebow, and Topsy.

As a freshman, I felt like I was always intimidated and nervous to speak up in class or say something at meetings whether it was for tennis, clubs, or for group projects. Just because it’s your first year doesn’t mean you should feel like you should have less of a voice. Your perspective is not only refreshing but important and I am sure that I will learn as much from you as you (hopefully) learn from me!
LUIZ FERNANDO
MACHADO POLETTI VALLE

Luis (first name basis already!) is an Astrophysics major from São Paulo, Brazil, where he lived his entire life before coming to Yale. (As his major suggests, Luis is eager to meet all the stellar members of JE 2021.) While he is still used to the warm Brazilian sun, he also appreciates the actual seasons New Haven has to offer. At Yale, one can often find Luis Waltzing with his Ballroom Family, voluntary teaching with Splash, or enjoying his favorite milkshakes at Yorkside. He can also be spotted hanging out in the JE Buttery, where he is always down for a game of pool or a savory Slywich. Come talk to Luis about any of the above (and more!), but if you want a question to start with, you can ask him about his favorite dance(s) or his thoughts on the new Brazilian soccer team.

Put yourself out there. The challenges that come with moving to College make it very easy for you to stay within your comfort zone, in the areas or activities you already know quite well—and that is perfectly fine! But do make sure you try something new every once in a while—after all, you never know when you will stumble upon your next passion. Giving a chance to dancing and performing, which I never thought of before coming to College, has truly been one of the best decisions I made while at Yale!
